

Diagnostic Parasitology Teaching Laboratory (218):

This laboratory is located on the second floor of the department building and contains a large number of microscopes and workspace for the required experiments in the practical Parasitology course. The course focuses on identifying parasites in biological samples (urine, stool, blood). The lab has a capacity of 25 students per practical session.

