

The Physics Department has one computer lab, which was updated in the 2023-2024 academic year, so that it now contains 21 HP computers. It is used by students for Scientific Research and Printing course materials. The lab is also reserved at specific times for Computerized Exams for the Faculty of Science.

